

Make presentations

Course duration: 2 days

Course cost: $550 per person (public workshops)

Special rates can be negotiated for workshops conducted by Training Services Australia on behalf of our clients, exclusively for their personnel

Workshop aim: To equip participants with the skills, knowledge and attitude to:

- Prepare presentations
- Deliver effective presentations
- Review presentations

Unit covered: BSBCMM411 – Make presentations

Information about the currency of this unit is available on training.gov.au.

<https://training.gov.au/training/details/bsbcmm411>

Delivery method: Face-to-face, off-the-job facilitated learning, reinforced by a practical, work-based assignment completed after the workshop

Who should attend? This workshop is aimed at those who are expected to make oral presentations as part of their work role. Applications may include marketing, sales, training, promotions, etc. Participants will be introduced to the skills and techniques vital to planning and organising an effective presentation, including the selection and application of appropriate presentation strategies, delivery methods, and presentation aids. The use of verbal and non-verbal communication skills in delivering presentations is also addressed, along with topics such as dealing with nerves, answering questions and managing difficult people. Techniques for reviewing the effectiveness of presentations are also covered.

Pre-requisites No qualifications or previous experience are necessary to participate in this workshop

Qualification: This course can contribute to qualifications such as:

BSB40520 Certificate IV in Leadership and Management

BSB41419 Certificate IV in Work Health and Safety

Make presentations

Language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) requirements

To successfully complete the course, participants will need to have a relatively high level of reading and writing ability, as well as good oral communication skills. Examples of activities that participants will need to perform include:

- Prepare a presentation delivery plan and supporting resources / aids
- Deliver an effective oral presentation in accordance with their plan

Participants will also need to be capable of using word processing software (e.g., Microsoft Word and PowerPoint) to write, edit and format documents.

Those wishing for further advice about whether they have the necessary LLN skills to complete this course should contact a TSA Training Advisor.

Access to a workplace environment

To complete the assessment component of this course, participants need to be working in, or have access to, an organisation in which they are able to make oral presentations to others. Ideally, this will be a workplace where they are currently an employee.

Pre-course work

Participants are advised to think about a topic for a 10-minute presentation which they will make on the final day of the course. It is recommended that participants bring any equipment / resources that they will need for the presentation.

Homework

Participants will be assessed delivering their presentation to a group of fellow participants on the final day of the course. Time will be provided on the course for participants to plan and organise their presentation, however participants will need to also spend some time preparing and rehearsing their presentation for homework.

Topics

DAY 1

- Introductory concepts
- Planning a presentation
- Structuring a presentation
- Presentation aids and materials
- Organising the presentation

DAY 2

- Communication skills
- Delivering the presentation
- Review and evaluate presentations
- On-course presentation (assessment activity)

Make presentations

Assessment

The assessment for this course consists of:

- Assessment of on-course presentation delivery
- Assessment of presentation documentation completed on the course
- Completion of Knowledge Questionnaire. This tests learners' underpinning knowledge of presentation concepts. The questionnaire may be completed as an 'open-book' assessment, during or after the course.
- Post-course assignment, including preparation, delivery and review of a presentation in the workplace. Note that learners will be required to arrange for a third party to observe them delivering this presentation (or submit a video of their presentation to TSA).

Resource requirements

To complete the assessment for this course, participants will need to have access to:

- a computer, a printer and the internet
- an audience to which they can make a presentation
- any resources / equipment needed to support the delivery of the presentation
- someone who can observe them making the presentation and provide feedback to TSA

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is available for this course.

RPL is suitable for those whose previous knowledge and experience will enable them to demonstrate competency in the unit on which the course is based. TSA's RPL policy and some general information about the RPL process are available in the Policies and Procedures area of our website.

Please contact Training Services Australia for an application kit and for information about the fees and charges that apply. Note that RPL enquiries should be made before attending the course.

National recognition

Training Services Australia recognises qualifications and statements of attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations under the Australian Qualifications Framework. TSA's policy for National Recognition is available from the Policies and Procedures area of our website.

If you have already achieved this unit and wish to have it recognised, please contact a TSA Training Advisor.